

Getting there 2

倉吉駅

KURAYOSHI Sta.

Check how to get from Kurayoshi Station to tourist destinations!

This area has an historical building preservation area with buildings from the Edo and Meiji periods, so it is a perfect place to take a stroll. The closest station to Goshō Aoyama Manga Factory is Yura Station, about 10 min. on the San-in Line from Kurayoshi Station.

Getting from the ticket gate to the bus terminal

Train station ticket gate

Exit the ticket gate, then head to the left to the south exit. At the end of the corridor, turn left and go down the stairs to the first floor.

Full view of the terminal

At the bottom of the stairs, there will be a Tourist Product Center facing you. Proceed straight while looking to the left of that center to find the bus terminal.

Bus guidance map

There will be a guidance map and a timetable on the station side of the bus terminal. Look up your boarding area number based on your destination, then use the map to check the location of your boarding area.

Boarding the bus

To go to the Tottori Nijisseiki Pear Museum (Nashikko Museum) or the Kurayoshi White Wall Storehouses, board a bus at boarding area 2.

This is the only pear-themed museum in Japan. Besides the permanent exhibits, there are many things to see including planned exhibitions and a museum shop.

青山剛昌ふるさと館 Gosho Aoyama Manga Factory

This is a museum commemorating Gosho Aoyama, the creator of the popular manga "Case Closed" aka "Detective Conan." There is also a street lined with statues called Conan Avenue that starts at Yura Station.
